ORDER

Adopted: September 21, 2000

Released: September 22, 2000

By the Associate Chief, Accounting Policy Division, Common Carrier Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

1. In its Carrier Change Orders,¹ the Commission adopted rules applicable to carriers changing a consumer's preferred carrier.² In this Order, we grant Startec Global Communications Corporation and Startec Global Operating Company (Startec) a limited waiver of the authorization and verification requirements of the Commission's rules and Carrier Change Orders.³ We grant this limited waiver to the extent necessary to enable Startec to become the preferred carrier of the consumers currently presubscribed to Telcorp. without first obtaining the consumers' authorization and verification.

2. Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996, makes it unlawful for any telecommunications carrier to "submit or execute a change in a subscriber's selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service except in accordance with such procedures as the Commission shall prescribe."⁴ The goal of section 258 is to eliminate the practice of "slamming," the unauthorized change of a subscriber's preferred carrier. Pursuant to section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with the Commission's verification procedures.⁵ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission revised its procedures to ensure that carriers obtain the requisite authority prior to changing a customer's preferred carrier. The Commission requires that carriers follow one of the Commission's prescribed verification procedures before submitting carrier changes on behalf of consumers.⁶

3. Startec seeks a waiver of our verification rules to allow Startec to be designated the preferred long distance carrier for the customers of Telcorp without first obtaining each customer's authorization and verification. Because we conclude that, under the circumstances presented, it is in the public interest to grant the waiver, we grant Startec a waiver, subject to the conditions represented in its filings.

II. DISCUSSION

4. Generally, the Commission's rules may be waived for good cause shown.⁷ As noted by the Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit, however, agency rules are presumed valid.⁸ The Commission may exercise its discretion to waive a rule where the particular facts make strict

³ On August 28, 2000, Startec filed a Petition for Expedited Waiver of Commission's Rules relating to Startec's acquisition of the customer base of Telcorp, Ltd. (Telcorp) (Waiver Petition). On September 13, 2000, Startec filed a Supplemental Submission (Supplement), which provided further justification for Startec's request for expedited treatment of the Waiver Petition.

compliance inconsistent with the public interest.⁹ In addition, the Commission may take into account considerations of hardship, equity, or more effective implementation of overall policy on an individual basis.¹⁰ Waiver of the Commission's rules is therefore appropriate only if special circumstances warrant a deviation from the general rule, and such a deviation will serve the public interest.¹¹

5. We find that Startec has demonstrated that good cause exists to justify a limited waiver of the Commission's authorization and verification requirements to the extent necessary to enable Startec to transfer to its own customer base the affected Telcorp domestic and international long distance customers. Telcorp's customer base consists of small and medium-sized business customers. In the Waiver Petition, Startec states that on August 21, 2000, it acquired certain assets of Telcorp, including Telcorp's customer base.¹² Upon discontinuance of service by Telcorp, Startec will provide interexchange services on a presubscription basis to the former customers of Telcorp.

6. We conclude that special circumstances exist to justify a waiver. Without this waiver, the service of some former Telcorp customers might temporarily be interrupted when Telcorp ceases providing presubscribed service to customers who fail to respond in a timely fashion to requests for preferred carrier change authorization; those customers might also pay potentially higher casual calling rates after the discontinuance of presubscribed service. We conclude that a waiver of the Commission's carrier change rules and orders is necessary to provide a seamless transition with no disruption of service to the transferred customers.

7. We find that Startec has demonstrated that a limited waiver of the authorization and verification rules is in the public interest because it will prevent consumers from temporarily losing service or paying significantly higher rates, and because Startec and Telcorp have agreed to notify the affected customers as described below. Startec states that the two companies will undertake a two-step process to notify the affected customers of the transfer. In a first letter, Telcorp will inform customers of the proposed transfer and assure them that no charges or rate increases will be imposed as a result of the transfer.¹³ Startec states that the two companies will also advise the affected customers that they can choose a different preferred carrier, should they desire to do so.¹⁴ In addition, customers will be given a toll-free number to call with any questions they may have about the transition. According to Startec, once the proposed transfer has been consummated, Startec will notify these customers of that event and reiterate the foregoing information, assurances, and advice.¹⁵ Startec has agreed that, if the Commission waives its rules to permit Startec to provide service to Telcorp's former customers, Startec will work with the complainants and the Commission to investigate and resolve any outstanding customer complaints regarding services provided by Telcorp.¹⁶ We conclude that these conditions will adequately protect the rights of the transferred customers of Telcorp.

8. For the foregoing reasons, we grant Startec a waiver of the authorization and verification requirements of our rules for the limited purposes described above. The grant of this waiver is conditioned upon Startec's provision of customer notification and handling of customer complaints, as described above and further detailed in the Waiver Petition.

III. ORDERING CLAUSES

9. Accordingly, pursuant to authority contained in Sections 1, 4, and 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 151, 154, 258, and the authority delegated under sections 0.91, 0.291, and 1.3 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91, 0.291, 1.3, the waiver request filed by Startec Global Communications Corporation and Startec Global Operating Company on August 28, 2000, and supplemented on September 13, 2000, IS GRANTED to the extent indicated herein.

10. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective upon release.
